Fort McMurray

The Largest Natural Disaster in Alberta History

On May 3, 2016 a raging forest fire swept through the northern Alberta town of Fort McMurray forcing the largest evacuation in Alberta history, and the costliest disaster in Canadian history.

While residents continue to rebuild from the devastation the Calgary Food Bank continues to do all we can to support all those returning to their homes.

88,000 people were successfully evacuated

Calgary Food Bank raised over $62,000 designated for the Wood Buffalo Food Bank and delivered over 350,000lbs of food to area food banks
